MEETING OF AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Over 1,000 Members Attend the Opening Session at Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 7 .- The fif ty-fifth annual meeting of the American Medical Association was opened to-day in Marine Hall, on Young's pier, with more than one thousand members from every section of the country in attendance. The meeting was called to order by retiring President Dr. Frank Billings, of Chicago, and Dr. E. C. Savage, of Nashville, first vice president, responded to the speeches of welcome. The report of the committee on arrangements was followed by the introduction of President-elect Dr. John H. Musser, of Philadelphia, who delivered the annual address. In addition to the general session twelve sectional meetings devoted to various departments in the practice of medicine and surgery were held during the day. The House of Delegates, the legislative body of the organization, made up of delegates from State and Territorial societies, held an executive session. The House of Delegates comprises 110 members, representing about fifty societies. Dr. Musser presided over the session, which was devoted to the reading of committee reports and other routine matters.
